

Fredrik David Waldek

Likely active period:

1830-1877

Born/baptised : Unknown

Died : Unknown

Born at the Cape, the son of Johannes Waldek of Immenhausen in Hesse-Kassel and Dorothea Florentina Jensen of the Cape.

Table- and dessert spoons and forks, and teaspoons, are generally in the Fiddle and Kings patterns, although the Hanoverian pattern is occasionally found.

Serving flatware in these patterns includes fish slices, konfyf forks, butter knives, salt / condiment spoons / ladles, sauce ladles, soup ladles, marrow scoops, salad servers, berry spoons and sugar tongs.

The one snuff box I have seen is rectangular, decorated with engraved plumage.

The only other items I have seen by this maker are two pap boats.
