

I (J?) de Jongh

Likely active period:

Late 18th / early 19th C

Born/baptised : Unknown

Died : Unknown

Only known through his name stamped on silverware. Thought to be the maker of these items because they bear no other maker's mark, although some bear incuse initials that appear to be those of the original owner. Cape manufacture can also therefore not be confirmed.

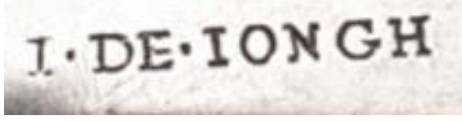

I am aware of only flatware bearing this mark – a konfynt fork (pattern not specified in the auction catalogue), and two pairs of Old English pattern teaspoons. The Old English pattern suggests a date of the very late 18th or early 19th century.
